BROKE COLLAR BONE SKATING ON PAVEMENT

Merrill Smith, the eleven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith, broke his collar bone last Monday while roller skating on the sidewalk pavement. The lad was quite an expert for his age, and was showing the other boys some new stunts in skating when he fell. A doctor reduced the fracture, which is mending nicely.

DON'T BE AFRAID—HE WILL NOT HURT YOU

Commencing next week, December 1st, the Chipman Mercantile company will take a special interest in showing the children and parents the largest and most complete line of Dolls, Toys, Novelties and Xmas Goods. These German made articles were all purchased before the war affected prices. There will be no advance in toys this year, if you buy from us. We were successful in securing, not only the staple articles usually exhibited, but a large number of interesting attractions and many new toys that have not been shown before. Our full line will be shown December 1st, in our Grocery Department. Xmas Goods, Xmas Books, Xmas Cards, Xmas Dishes and Xmas Candles. Old Santa will be one of the prominent features on display.

A Knowing Housewife's Advice on Sugar

"There are good sugars and poor sugars"

"What you get depends not so much upon what you pay, as upon what you ask for."

"For instance: Merely ask for sugar and you're more than likely to get an inferior product."

"Ask for Utah-Idaho Sugar and you'll get 'the standard of sugar perfection'—a sugar that will serve you perfectly for every use."

This is what the "knowing housewife" discovered.

Why not take advantage of the information, and insure yourself sugar satisfaction.
